

Education Court

A new program from Presiding Circuit Judge William Collins and Associate Circuit Judge Stacey Lett, in collaboration with the Cass County Juvenile Office.

The focus of the program is to improve attendance for students in Kindergarten through sixth grade by reaching out to families and providing services on an informal basis.

The program will launch at a few pilot sites at schools throughout Cass County during the 2018 fall semester.

This program is part of a renewed focus on early intervention by the juvenile system. Additionally, we are making strides to provide prompt services for anyone experiencing a mental health crisis or suicidal ideation. Please call your local juvenile office at (816) 380-8475 for help or information.

If you or your organization are interested in participating, or would like more information, please contact:
